

Center for Teaching and Research in Disaster
Medicine and Traumatology, Linköping University invites to an open meeting on

Healthcare in Conflicts

Location: Room Sydney, Katastrofmedicinskt centrum,
Johannes Magnus väg 11, Linköping
Time: 0845-1400, Friday 31 August, 2018
Cost: Free of charge

For Whom?

For all interested in healthcare in conflicts.

Preliminary Program

- 0815-0845 Coffee
- 0845-0900 Introduction, objectives, housekeeping rules, round of introduction - Andreas Wladis
- 0900-0915 ICRC's surgical treatment of war-related injuries in Peshawar
- Måns Muhrbeck
- 0915-0930 Wound studies from Erbil - Andreas Älgå
- 0930-0945 Studies on HR preparedness in ICRC - Frederike Haverkamp
- 0945-1000 Whole blood in trauma care – civilian and military aspects
- Denise Bäckström
- 1000-1030 Coffee break
- 1030-1050 Healthcare in crisis. Surgical surge capacity in Sweden - Andreas Wladis
- 1050-1105 Epidemiology from the battle of Mosul 2017 - Fredrik Bäckström
- 1105-1125 Mental health in conflicts - Helena Frielingsdorf
- 1125-1145 Team preparation before deployment - Edward Tan
- 1145-1200 Stop the bleed – civilian and military aspects – Carl-Oscar Jonsson
- 1200-1300 Lunch
- 1300-1345 Discussion
- 1345-1400 Concluding remarks -Andreas Wladis

Notification of participation no later than 19 August, 2018

Please, confirm your attendance and any food requests to mans.muhrbeck@liu.se.

